

Caleb Cage Biography

Caleb Cage currently serves as director for the state's response to COVID-19 and has been a volunteer member of the board for Nevada Humanities since 2016. Previously, Caleb has served in a number of positions with the state, including in the areas of veterans services, emergency management, homeland security, and workforce development. He lives in Reno, Nevada with his wife, Brooke, and three children.